

1 Introduction

This document describes the class for storing decisions made by the system. In this context a decision is a short string, for instance “The pointgroup is PG422.” When a decision is recorded a timestamp is attached. This will allow a time-ordered set of decisions to be printed to show what happened.